Be Transformed!

*Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.”
Romans 12:2a*

“I’m a nonconformist.” Yeah, right.

It’s easy to be different in superficial ways. But to truly break out of the mold and live differently is another matter. Like it or not, most of us are still following the pattern set before us by the world.

It doesn’t have to be that way. Transformation is possible, but it must begin from within. It starts with a renewing of your mind by the power of God’s word.

If you want to follow the crowd, don’t join us the weekend of April 21-23.

What, when, where, etc.

This retreat will be held at Camp Yolijwa in Newville, PA, about 80 miles from State College and less than 20 miles from Shippensburg (www.campyolijwa.org).

Activities will begin promptly at 7:00 pm on Friday, April 21. Plan to arrive no later than 6:30 so that you have time to get settled.

Five meals will be provided (Saturday breakfast through Sunday lunch). No dinner will be served on Friday.

Activities at this conference will include textual Bible study, messages, group discussion, recreation and some exercises that will help us to break out of the mold and become real nonconformists.

What, I gotta pay?

Some of the best things in life are free. This conference is not one of them. The cost is $60. Pay by check to “University Bible Fellowship.”

What to bring

Camp Yolijwa is an old-fashioned hotel that was converted into a retreat center. It’s an awesome place to stay. But in order to keep the costs down, the camp does not provide pillows, sheets, blankets or towels. Make sure that you bring these things.

Please bring a Bible and an open mind.
